OF THE LATE

In my last communication I promised to give a more detailed account of the sale of the coin collection of the late John Haigh, of Somerville, Mass., which was disposed of at auction by Messrs C. F. Libbie & Co., of Boston, on Oct. 28 and 29. Mr. Haigh was a mason of the thirty-third degree, and his collection included an unusually fine lot of masonic badges and medals. The latter occupied 160 numbers of the catalogue, and the total number of masonic badges was 1251. The medals sold at very low prices, the so-called "Freemason's Ducat" (Marvin, No. 12) bringing $2.00, which was the highest amount realized.

1870 Gold patterns J 1575 & 1579 were offered as lot ... the purchaser was Joseph Mickelson who was known to the numismatic records as Uncle Joe.

Dr. W. Akers in his reference work on gold patterns lists only auction appearance in the Parmelee sale in 1870. However, with the Haigh sale, these two pieces also appeared in the Boston Ely sale in 1888. That sale, which had gold coins only, most unusual for that era, could well be the subject of an article on its own.

Mickelson left his entire collection to the state library in Hartford. I wrote to this institution to ask if these gold coins were in their possession, but I received no answer. As Mickelson did not obtain possession of these coins it quite possible they went into the collection of Virgil M Brand who was a good friend of Uncle Joe.

Dear Sir

Recently I purchased a copy of the Haigh auction sale catalog held in Boston in 1901. The catalog is priced and some lots have the names of buyers.

Lots 825 & 826 were 1878 gold pattern eagle & half-eagle. The buyers of both these lots is listed as Jobe. I am aware that Mr Mitchelson was known to his friends as "Uncle Joe". I wonder if you could Uncle Dicke to see if by any chance the coins are in the Mitchelson collection in your museum. I have enclosed a copy of the coins.

Thank you for your help.

Yours truly

D. W.
